2. Scope of discussion

The public has raised concerns why the Report of the Institutional Reform Committee has yet to be disclosed. The report was submitted sometime in June 2018 to the Cabinet. It was expected that this report would be circulated to the public for feedback on the recommendations proposed.

This has not happened. In the meantime, the reforms seem to be undertaken in a somewhat uncharted manner.

The forum will address these concerns and hopefully chart the way forward.
